38 SRS
AWFUL AFB, NE
MAY 79-- VOL 1 NO.3
$$$ NO CHARGE FOR CREWDOGS

Summer
IS SKINNY
& DIPPED
TIME!

STUART ANDERSON'S CATTLE COMPANY--10865 W Dodge. Bar with live music (disco with mandatory flashing lights, stainless steel dance floor). Nice secluded atmosphere in dining areas with smoked-glass enclosed alcoves. Typical beef and frozen seafood menu. Prices realistic. Jammed on weekend nights. Plan on getting tattered or dancing your feet off before getting a table.

CDG AT THE CINEMA!

Once again CDG's top critic (besides the 7th Air Div CC) present's a CREWDOG'S Guide To Summer Films, referred to around the office as the CDG Canned Film Festival. Ace reviewer Bona Rarrett presents her unopinionated comments on this summer's offerings.

AIRPORT 79--Entire 55 SRW roams world looking for a place to land after Offutt runway is closed for "two month" repair. Predictable ending has descendants of original CREWDOGS finally being recalled to home station. Giant epic spanning two hundred years.

THE BEER HUNTER--Academy Award winning show starring Brian Worth. Old Recon veteran cruises bars of Glyfada searching for 721 lost loves and 5 years of wasted youth. Finds everything and re-enlists. Implausible ending, but still entertaining. Lurid sex scenes in souvlaki shop may surprise some wives/girl-friends/fry cooks.

ALIEN--Evil androids from Andromeda accidentally crash star cruiser into Louisiana swamp when Navs fall asleep on watch. Alien crew masquerades as SAC CEVG, terrorizes USAF defenders of freedom throughout CONUS. Creatures run amok until brought to bay by failure of their power packs on long Recon trainers. Considerable violence, excessive rough language. Fear inspired by close-ups of fiends may cause 2 Lts to have nightmares.

THE CANINE GOURMAND

Once again CDG subverts its high ideals to achieve survival. Yes, this month we pounded the pavement trying to drum up a few bucks and/or a free drink. Since the Flower Fund is going bust we reasoned that it was either raise subscription rates or sell ads. Since we have damn few subscriptions anyway, we hit the restaurants for another try at informing the CREWDOG epicure as to the best dog chow in town. We made it to a few of the lesser known joints and some that are strictly high roller. So here it is. (By the way we got 79% for all the ads put together. They must not have heard about our world-wide distribution.)

*****
THE DRAWBRIDGE-- 1 block N of 130th and West Center. This tacky parody of King Arthur's Camelot offers more than an Americanized version of the "olde Englishe Feasting Hall. A dozen tasty entrees between $6 and $11 may take a bite out of your coin purse, but experienced CREWDOGS will retaliate by gorging at a 20 foot salad bar that must be seen to be believed. Throw bones over your shoulder and address the waitresses as "wench". No jousting after six.

*****
THE VIP--9001 Arbor near the end of the Kennedy freeway. Bar with non-affiliated Mexican kitchen serving some of the best beaner food in town. Margaritas have strong shot of cactus. Moderate prices. Go for lunch only and in a group. This place is rough at night; several murders a year in the bar, but they usually have the mess cleaned up in time for the noon trade.

*****
PONDEROSA--1820 Wilshire, Bellevue. Haven't been TDY in a while? Visit Pondersoa and relive the nausea that accompanies eating in a flightline cafeteria. Tasteless pap served in a simulated plastic atmosphere by friendly folks that probably don't eat there themselves. To get the full effect, chow down and go fly 10 hours.

*****
*CHURCHILLS--6311 Center. For the CREWDOG with the discriminating palate and thick wallet. Classic Frog Cuisine with the waiters in tuxes. High roller; great *for impressing dates/anniversaries/etc. Don't need *to speak French, but it may impress the sommelier. *Delicacies abound; snails, quails and steaks you can *cut with a hard stare. Prices like a Republican *fund raising dinner: about $ 30 a plate.

ATTENTION FOBS: NEW "KENNELS AROUND THE WORLD" ISSUE COMING UP...TAKE A CREWDOG TO LUNCH!!!!

ANIMAL HOUSE-- Fun-filled exploits of Recon Fraternity brothers who are just a bunch of w-i-l-d and c-r-a-a-z-y guys with no respect for authorities or their figures. Scenes of young CREWDOGS flipping off the staff and throwing up during briefings may offend some, but the offenders don't care anyway. Considerable alcoholism, thoroughly disgusting; a realistic portrayal of CREWDOGS in action.

BLAZING TYPEWRITERS--Zany spoof of USAF pilot retention programs during airline hiring blitz of '78. Fantastic promises and empty threats fly from generals as resumes and DOS's spew from pilot typewriters. President finally declares national emergency and causes severe economic depression to halt exodus. Bloody, detailed staff revenge scenes may amuse some, but are unsuitable for young pilots.

SUPERWOMAN--Ann Smethurst debuts as woman's lib answer to John Wayne. After enlisting in AF, Superwoman rapidly overcomes all opposition by unmerciful bombardment with high frequency sound waves. Scenes of lips moving in a blur are technical masterpieces. Disenchanted Woman Of Steel returns to Krypton after promotion to CINCSAC in only four and 1/2 years but still feeling discriminated against because executive washroom has stand up urinal.

REGGIE AND THE BANDITS--Old Recon CREWDOGS unite for one last round the world "Recon Binge". Daredevil flying, heavy drinking, lewd sex, spot promotions, even single BOQ rooms. This flick has it all. Cameo appearances by "Recon Breath" Moore, "Elmo Endurance English", Fargo Vortac, and many others. Flying scenes highlighted by Jimmy Morrow recreating his famous "RC-Takeoff-With-Cargo-Door-Open" thriller.

Letters to the Editor

EDITOR: Can you loan me some good "Letters To The Editor"? My column is really bombing! I've had to use that dumb letter I made up about Jaecques wanting the crows back two times! Al Smith makes me run it 'cause he thinks it makes it look like somebody really cares about crows. I know it isn't fooling anybody though, and I'm depending on you for some really funny stuff. Help, please.

EDITOR, BFD

.....You should be more choosy about who you depend on.

EDITOR: That little remark about crows being replaced by unsophisticated computers may be your undoing. It is against the law to reveal Top Secret info like you just did. I have called in the OSI. You really undermined morale around here. Besides, we're not being replaced by computers, but by some buttons that don't do anything either.

Al Smith, Lead Crow

....Don't sweat it Al. There is always a need for janitors and clerks. They won't boot you guys out. We're sure morale will pick up as soon as your boys get these new, much more meaningful assignments.

EDITOR: I am being blackmailed! Your Crewdogs say they have a picture of me in bed hugging a cute little Greek telephone. They threaten to print it unless I retire!! If you print it you're in big trouble. We crows don't scare easy!

"FATHER" Flanagan

.....We heard about it. Better retire and make it easy on yourself. We knew you crows were weird, but a Greek telephone??? Heard you nearly missed the bus because you just couldn't get out of the sack!

EDITOR: I have been putting on a few pounds and have been looking for a good set of exercises. Friends suggested I take up Mexican Rodeo. I don't know what that is but I sure would like to try it during my down time in Athens. Can you help?

....Can we ever!! In some places it is called Virginia Rodeo but it's the same thing. You bite and unsuspecting lady of your choice on the ass and then try to hang on for eight seconds using only your teeth. Try it the next time you go to Bobby's II.

WANT ADS

Wanted: We have dozens of jobs for experienced Recon pilots and co-pilots. Earn while you learn!! High salary includes sincere thank-yous and high praise. Many fringe benefits such as knowing the answers to the squadron tests, gaining knowledge yourself and keeping us from dying of overwork. Inquire Squadron IP office. Especially interested in Instr. Co-pilots.

Wanted: Contributions to Squadron Flower Fund. All donations cheerfully accepted. Support the many wonderful activities this fund provides such as: keeping Bldg 497 from being buried in dust and debris, publishing this wonderful newspaper and preventing the Squadron CC from being jailed on bad check charges after using the Squadron checkbook to pay for these services. All donations are voluntary and can be deducted on your income tax if you are a bold liar.

EDITOR: I congratulate you on your drive to becoming the biggest energy savers on base. The entire 38 th SRS is to be congratulated for their dedication and willingness to sacrifice. I refer of course to your unprecedented number of parking tickets. If you continue to ignore the signs, I can arrange for the entire squadron to lose base driving privileges.
Col Newton, 3902 CC

.....Bob Brown put you up to it didn't he? Never trust a crow! Okay, we'll watch it.

EDITOR: I read in the BFD that they only charge $2 a year for a subscription. You charge $5. Can you explain charging more than twice as much?
Cheapskate Staffer

...First of all, your reading habits show a lack of discrimination. Therefore we'll make it simple. Which costs more, a Mercedes 280 or a Ford Granada? Fine blue-white diamonds or rhinestones? We charge more than twice as much 'cause we are more than twice as good.

EDITOR: Quit picking on Skip. He's not as smart as his brother Profess or as strong as his brother Iron. In fact, he got his nickname 'cause it was easier to say, "skip it, I'll do it myself." But he's my son, so leave him alone.

Mrs. Orr

..... Profess Orr? Iron Orr? We think you need a Doct Orr.

EDITOR: I recently visited the Bona Vista and my Staff was doubled up. Not one man came up to my Penthouse suite to complain while we were there. What are you CREWDOGS complaining about? I thought the quarters were great!

Col Pendley, 306 SW

.....Swell, we're all moving up to the Penthouse, right sir? Thank you very much. This is the best deal we've ever seen. We'll just tell the desk clerk you okayed it. We'll leave an alarm clock in the Penthouse so you can get to the aircraft on time next time. Glad the staffers didn't mind being doubled up. Are you sure they're all hetero?

NO SHIT???

FIRST RAPE,

THEN

KILL??

.... NO

WONDER SHE

DIDN'T MOVE MUCH!!!
