

Henry George Schuring, 91

Lt. Col. (Retired) Henry G. (Hank) Schuring, born January 10, 1932, passed away peacefully the morning of March 2, 2023. His wife of 68 years, Loretta T. Schuring passed away later that same day, on her 92nd birthday. Both growing up in northern New Jersey, they married shortly after Hank joined the Air Force. As a pilot, he earned the rank of Lt. Colonel during the more than 22 years he served. They traveled extensively throughout the country and the world, living a life neither of them could have imagined. Upon retirement from the Air Force in 1973, they settled in Papillion NE and lived a full and active life in the community. As was often the case while in the Air Force, Hank went first, we believe to get things settled, while Loretta followed him mere hours later that day. Hank and Loretta were surrounded by their children, Kathy Johnston (Chuck) and Doug Schuring (Betsy). They are survived by their grandchildren, Greg Schuring (Sheridan), Libby Ruf (Darin), Scott Johnston (Ashley) and Dan Johnston (Kylee) and great-grandchildren, Henry Ruf, Olive Ruf, Lolo Johnston, Mack Johnston, Macy Johnston, and Jett Johnston. Their final resting place will be at the Omaha National Cemetery in Sarpy County NE.

In lieu of a public service, we ask that all who wish to participate make a donation for Hank and Loretta Schuring to either of the following organizations in honor of Scott Johnston, their grandson, who is currently battling ALS.
