

Marion L. (Eloe) Taylor

Marion L. (Eloe) Taylor Marion L. Taylor went to be with her Lord July 21, 2018. Survivors include her daughters Chris Belden (Brian) and Julie Taylor; four grandchildren, Christopher and Ben Perdue and Elizabeth and Brad (Jordan) Belden, and a sister, Theodocia Bergstrom (Ted).

She was born August 1, 1925 to Elizabeth Nicholas and John Eloe near Mason City, Nebraska, and was raised in Ansley, Nebraska. She was graduated from Ansley High School in 1943 and attended Nebraska State Teachers College at Kearney and the University of Nebraska. While at the university, she met James S. Taylor on a blind date. They married in 1947, and lived in New York and Indiana before moving to Topeka with the Strategic Air Command at Forbes Air Force Base in 1957. Jim passed July 7, 2016.

She was an active member of Crestview United Methodist Church, Northeast Kansans for Nebraska, and the Ansley and University of Nebraska Alumni Associations. She served as the first secretary of the Mulvane Art Museum's Women's Board, as a Girl Scout leader and volunteer, and in the Officers' Wives Club and PTA.

Services will be 11 a.m. Saturday, August 4, at Crestview United Methodist Church, 2245 SW Eveningside Drive, Topeka, KS, 66614, with visitation from 9:30-10:30 a.m. at the church. A light lunch will follow services.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to Crestview United Methodist Church, or to the Ansley High School Alumni Scholarship Foundation, 822 Noble Street, Ansley, NE, 68814-2426.

To view the full obituary and leave a special message for the family visit www.DoveTopeka.com.

Funeral Home
Dove Cremations & Funerals - Southwest Chapel
3700 SW Wanamaker Rd.
Topeka, KS 66610
785-272-9797